A Night of Improv at the Watchung Arts Center

May 15, 2014 (Watchung, NJ) – The Watchung Arts Center close out its 2013-2014 performance season with an evening of family-friendly improvisational comedy by the Improvables, on Saturday, June 7 at 8 PM. This will be the fifth appearance of the season by the Improvables, who have been providing the Center's audiences with zany, raucous one-of-a-kind and never-to-be-repeated humor since 2002.

Each show features a series of games in which the performers act out various scenes, based on audience suggestions, without advanced knowledge of the topics. Come ready to laugh at the antics of this wonderful improvisational troupe of actors including Randy Schweriner, David Kritz, Michele Kerekes, and Brandon Lericos of Bridgewater, Phil Hochman of Plainfield, Roberta Maher of Mt. Arlington and Mike Griffin of Hillsborough.

The show is suitable for children 10 and older. Tickets to the performance are $8, and may be purchased securely online at watchungartscenter.eventbrite.com.

The Watchung Arts Center, located at 18 Stirling Road in Watchung on the Watchung Circle, is a multi-disciplinary performing arts facility serving Watchung, the surrounding communities and the Tri-State Area.
